COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

BIB120 New Testament Literature (3) A survey of New Testament literature stressing the major features and genre of each book. Special attention is also given to the theology, historical context, and background of each book. (online only)

BIB223 Jesus and the Gospels (3) Prerequisite: BIB110, BIB120, BIB220; An in-depth look at the gospels with a view of understanding the life of Jesus. Special emphasis is given to the gospel's distinct perspectives, the study of the historical Jesus, and the teachings of Jesus in their social setting.

THE124 Pentecostal Theology (3) This course introduces the student on the tenets of the Assemblies of God. Emphasis is placed on the foundation of Pentecostalism, an examination of the four cardinal doctrines of the Assemblies of God such as the role and work of the Spirit in relation to baptism, salvation, healing, and the second coming of Christ.

THE256 Theological Ethics for Christian Leaders (3) This course is a study of ethics from a theological and biblical perspective. It provides the foundation for ethical analysis of modern and moral challenges at the personal and public level of life. Topics covered include the study of virtue, deontology, teleology and utilitarianism.

THE330 Christology (3) Prerequisite: THE103, THE124; TA biblical, historical, and theological exploration of the person and work of Christ, with special reference to the practical implications of this doctrine for the disciple-making mission of the church. (online only)

THE352 Pneumatology (3) Prerequisite: THE103, THE124; This course introduces the student to the theology of the Holy Spirit as expressed through the perspective of the Pentecostal tradition. This study of the Holy Spirit includes such topics as the Spirit's: titles and symbols, personality, deity, baptism, gifts, and fruits. Special emphasis is placed on the articulation of an experiential pneumatology for today's church and world.

MIN130 Practicum III: Personal Ministerial Development (1) Practicum courses are designed to serve as an opportunity to learn the essentials of ministry and integrate academic learning with practical ministry experience. Students are required to put in practice their learnings by serving in a church, ministry, or organization. Practicum III focuses on learning how to implement the ordinances and rites of the church. Topics covered in this course include: How to baptize, marry, bury, administer Communion, altar prayer, laying on hands, praying for the sick, healing, and deliverance.

MIN126 Assemblies of God History, Mission, and Governance (1) This course will cover the history, doctrine and governance of the Assemblies of God. Attention is given to the General Council Constitution and Bylaws in relation to credentialed ministers, district councils, and local churches. (online only)

MIN199 Christian Worldview (3) A study of the methodology of engaging in a conversation with people who come from different contexts, religious backgrounds, worldviews, philosophies, and moralities. This includes learning the art of communicating effectively the gospel message to our culture and audience without compromising the integrity and truth of the Gospel. (online only)

MIN224 Spiritual Care and Healing (3) This course is designed to give the student an opportunity to discover the vital link between spiritual care and inner healing. The student will acquire the skill to minister to the needs of the people seeking help for deep spiritual problems and articulate the teachings and practices of the Pentecostal movement in the area of spiritual warfare and deliverance. (online only)

MIN270 A Spirit Empowered Church: An Acts 2 Model (3) A biblical, comprehensive, and strategic plan requires the empowerment of the Spirit to produce spiritual fruit and a flourishing church. The strategic plan is based on Acts 2 and focuses on developing Spirit-empowered disciples who will be involved in five functions found there: connect, grow, serve, go, and worship. Assessment tools are used to identify areas where changes are needed, and the strategic plan is used to focus on God's vision for each local church.

ENG126 Persuasive Writing (3) Students will focus on the conventions of academic writing with particular attention to persuasive writing. The purpose of this course is to help students write convincing, well-developed, and well-organized essays that synthesize, document, and respond to various sources, arguments, and positions on a given topic.

MAT163 Math and Personal Financial Management (3) An introduction to algebra for financial arithmetic and an introduction to consumer math that will aid the student's financial life. Topics included within this course are accounting principles, taxing, simple and compound interest, investments, and credit cards.

ECO211 Microeconomics (3) Prerequisite: ECO210; An introduction to the economics of private enterprise and resource allocation, including the theories of supply and demand, elasticity, factors of production, price and output determination under various market structures, market equilibrium. Also includes discussion of wages, rent, interest, profits, and income together with their functions in the market system. (online only)
